'Embracing Justice' Discussion Questions

Session 4: Justice and Incarnation

Does anything particularly speak to you in Darren's story? What questions or challenges does this story prompt? Do you know - or how could you get to know - someone like Darren?

What would contagious holiness look like in the bitter world of current public debates, particularly online?

What are your favourite stories or sayings of Jesus? Why? Which do you find difficult? Why do you think that is?

What would standing in solidarity with the churches in Lebanon look like?

Could you, your church, home group, commit to pray regularly for a group of Christians who may feel forgotten and abandoned?

How can you find out who is invisible or unheard in your local community?

Think of someone whom you profoundly disagree with. Could you ask them to tell you their story, uninterrupted, and find another person to retell that story to, without inserting any of your own judgements within it?
